HBH Innredning Launches New Norwegian Language Site

Tuesday, July 07, 2009

Fotlandsvåg, Norway – HBH Innredning today announced the launch of a new website for their Norway-based furniture making operation. The new site, launched at <http://www.hbh.no>, was built by Portland, Maine USA's Hall Web Services, who manages websites on behalf of their parent organization, the Rubb Group.

"The new site features in-depth information on their services, projects, and history," said Ian Robbins, web developer on the project. "The site has been built to W3C compliance standards and to be easily indexable on Norway-based search engines."

With unique expertise in furniture making for office and marine use, HBH Innredning looks forward to continue to serve their customers throughout Norway with quality furniture crafting.

About HBH Innredning

HBH Furniture Factory was established in 1938 in Fotlandsvåg, Norway, a municipality with a long tradition of furniture makings. HBH is now more than 70 years old, the only surviving furniture manufacturer in the county, thanks to their unique expertise and a high degree of adaptability.
