Hall Announces Addition to Paid, Organic, and Supplemental Search Marketing Teams

May 7, 2010

Portland, Maine – Hall Web Services, a Maine web design and internet marketing firm, announces the addition of Alexander Eaton to join their paid, organic, and supplemental search marketing teams. Alexander will support Hall's expanding workforce and increasing need for paid, organic, and supplemental search services.

After graduating from Skidmore College, Alexander returned to his roots in Portland, Maine to start a career in search marketing. He brings over two years of internet marketing experience to Hall's paid, organic, and supplemental search marketing teams. Alexander will assist the teams with keyword research and analysis, organic search strategy, local search, and site launch monitoring.

"We are very excited to have Alex join Hall's internet marketing team," said Kasi Gajtkowski, Organic Search Manager. "He brings with him a great deal of search knowledge and experience and has already proven to be an asset to not only our firm, but our clients as well."
