

Hall Staff Organize Donation to Center for Grieving Children

Portland, Maine – Staff at Hall Internet Marketing organized a donation drive of craft and office supplies to support the Center for Grieving Children, a Portland, Maine non-profit organization that provides peer support, outreach, and education to grieving children, teens, and families.

Cash donations and supplies from a list of desired materials were collected at Hall and delivered to the Center's Forest Avenue location on September 21, 2015.

"It's very important for all communities have an outlet for children and families that encourages hope, healing, and emotional growth through difficult times," said Megan Cullity, Administrative Assistant and drive organizer at Hall. "We are lucky to have The Center for Grieving Children offering this wonderful service to Greater Portland. We are more than happy to support their mission in any way we can."
