

Hall Internet Marketing Named Best Place to Work in Maine for Fifth Year

August 11, 2015

Portland, Maine - Hall Internet Marketing announced today it has been selected as one of the Best Places to Work in Maine. This is the fifth consecutive year that the Portland based, digital marketing firm has received this award. The 75 winning companies will be recognized and ranked during an award banquet to be held on October 7, 2015 at Holiday Inn by the Bay in Portland.

The sixteen year old, employee owned company prides itself on fostering a challenging and collaborative working environment where employees are empowered to influence company culture. "I have been encouraged since day one to innovate and make my own impact on the company," said Client Service Tech Geoff Bell. "Whether that's developing the skills to bring client offerings in new directions or organizing a companywide pie baking competition. That's not something I've found at every employer."

"It's amazing to think that our organization has been selected as a top place to work in Maine for five straight years," said Mike Johnston, Director of Web Performance. "It's a testament to the fact that we truly do enjoy the work we're doing here and especially that we enjoy the people we work with."

The statewide survey and awards program was designed to identify, recognize and honor the best places of employment in Maine, benefiting the state's economy, its workforce and businesses. The 2015 Best Places to Work in Maine list is made up of 75 companies in three size categories: small (15-49 U.S. employees) medium (50-249 U.S. employees) and large (250+ U.S. employees).

Best Places to Work in Maine was founded by the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) – Maine State Council and the Best Companies Group. Partners endorsing the program include Mainebiz, the Maine State Chamber of Commerce, and Maine HR Convention.
